The "A-MAIZE-ING RYS"

On Wednesday, 19 January 2011, it was time to once again send the new students of the Private Hotel School into the streets of Stellenbosch on a scavenger hunt, known as the "A-maize-ing Rys". This race forms part of the orientation program for the new students each year with the aim of giving students the opportunity to get to know Stellenbosch and each other better. All the students met at "Die Braak" on Wednesday morning where they were divided into teams and given a map and clues as to where they must go.

The clues they received took them all over town to destinations including Ster Kinekor, Shoprite, Protea Bookshop, Kruiskerk, "Die Ouhoofgebou", the Student Study Centre, "Die Neelsie" and the library. At the end of the orientation week, at an awards ceremony, prizes were given to the various teams, including categories such as "Best Team Spirit", "Lost Sheep", "The Biggest Cheaters", "Winners", etc. This event, as always, proved to be both fun and educational!

Cape Town Walking Tour

This is why we love Cape Town! From the view of the iconic Table Mountain that greeted us as we left the train station ascending Strand-Bree street, to the strong as ever winds of the Cape South-Easter that met us as our first year students stepped into the ultra-cool Fire & Ice Hotel.

In reception we stood in awe at the trendy decor, ultra-chic lighting, long drop "shark-cage" escalator and coffin seats, but alas we had to move along swiftly as one of the leading hotels of the world waited for us. The gracious Table Bay Hotel with its 329 rooms, marble finishes, equipped with butler stations and we don't even have to mention that each bathroom is provide with a telephone.

After our visit at the Table Bay hotel we brought back the memories of the FIFA 2010 World Cup walking via the fan walk to one of Cape Town's hidden culinary gems. The Eastern Food Bazaar serves up dozens of delicious dishes from around Asia, at remarkable prices that fit the students budget. The food was prepared in front of us and served canteen style!

After exploring the vibrant city with all our senses (including shawarmas and bunny chow) we were exhausted and ready for the train ride back to Vlottenburgh train 'station'. Thank you for a great day!
